Meeting regularly since the first of the year and an open interest meeting in early December. Committee unanimously approved a mission statement and Committee members continue to identify and extend invitations to those agencies and groups whose presences on the Committee may be helpful for the purposes of addressing Jefferson Parish individual unmet needs. JPUNC members have completed documents concerning organizational procedures and outlining options for financial management and the subject of adopting a fiscal agent. A major concern and issue of discussion has been the case management system to support the work of the committee.

Due to the lack of housing, the committee is proposing a pilot project called Respite Housing for Orleans parish residents. This project will give residents a place to sleep and shower when they come into the city to clean their homes for up to four days. The pilot is schedule to begin in March. Residents will call a 1-800 number to register. The Nazarene's will provide operational oversight for the respite housing. The committee has an ad-hoc group that will develop recommendations for structure, draft a mission statement, and begin drafting by-laws.
